second to no selpher sating Mineral water as the sord!

It is especially useful in Dyspepsia, and sympathetic derengements arising from weakness of lone of the stomach. It is a senile aperient, and may be substituted with great advantage for Suratoga and other such Mineral Waters.

The preserce of Iodina Compounds residers it eminently useful in Servicions Compaints, in which respect it differs from most Mineral Waters, and thus recommends it off as a natural remedy for many varieties of obstinate and distressing diseases.

The principal constituents of the Water are Soda, Magnesia, and Limo Sata, with Iodine Compounds. A minits analysis of it will be published in a few days.

Testimonials of its virtues will be furnished by T. E. JEMKINS & CO., Thirl and Wainut ats.

- AUGUST 16, 1856.

Democracy of the Union The position of the Democratic party before the country, will attract to itself all the c nservative men of the Union. It must grow stronger daily, as long as there is an element of sanity or patriottem left outside of it. Good men may be borne away for a time by prejudice or excitement, but a time for reflection must come. The sober second thought must prevail; hence, we see daily notices of men heretofore hostile to the Democratic party, coming out for Bachanan and Brecklaridge.

Whilst the co test ragee between North and South, all is harmony and co-operation in the Democratic party, from Maine to California. There 14 no quarrel between Democrats North and South, but the most cordial concert. When the platform was presented, invoiving the great sectional question, the Democracy of Massachusette said, unanimonsly, Aye; and the Democracy of South Carotina responded, nuanimonsly, Aye. Side by sids the Democratic party of those two antagonistic States stand, as their fathers did in '76. In every State of this Union there is a powerful Democratic party; not a faction with a Prosidential candidate only, but a party. It is doing Its whole duty, under the responsibility of a patriotic party. Its nominces are in the field for every State office, in cvery Congressional and Legislative district. It doos not abandon its duty to the State anthor-Ities, nor hand over Congress to the control of Abolitionists. Fanatics and traitors find, everywhere, that they must encounter this same Democratic party. It is the opponent of the whole batch of iems, and has the honor to be hated by them oil.

In this section of the Union, it is marvelous that there should be any belonging to any other party. What party in the free States new defends the South? What party defends her from the charge of bad faith, and denounces the charge and its anthors? What party voted with her on the compromises of 1850, and the Nebraska-Kansas bill of 1854? The Democratic party stands alone is this respect. Go North or South, and the same energh will be applanded, on the same topics in t's Dem-cratic party. Every one sees, that if this party had control of the government, there would be no war between North and South, no toars of a dissolution of the Union. If this party had control of the States, we should hear no more of laws nullifying the slave law, no refusal o State officers to do their duty to the Southern out justice to every one tempered with mercy, States. This was one of the causes which helped to elect Blair. Another, and the relational causes which helped to elect Blair. Fillmore men will have strength enough to fill Congress with suck men, and we shall have just such a Congress as the present House. Moreover, that their chances were small to elect their candidate, exchanges were small to elect their candidates were small to ele legislature, and thus get control of the Senate of the United States. It would then be of small consequence to the South who was President. She would be ignored as a part of the Union, and all notion of her States enjoying equal rights with her sisters would be abundoned. It would take whole blame of this Abolition triningh rests upon the chan a Jackson to resist the fanaticism of the choulders of the Know-Nothing party. New Castle, Angust 10, 1855. Messra, EDITORS: In yesterday's Journal there appeared a most vindictive editorial, doubtless written here against our distingulshed fellow-cltisen, the Hon. Elijah F. The article is so full of pique it hardly leaves contact and sentences can be absenced for the first insertion, and twenty-five article is so full of pique it hardly leaves contact and subsequent insertion. notice, and we feel, as we contemplate the long faces of the defanct's friends, that wie should may nothing but let them enjoy diving in their own way.
If they do kick at us, what harm can they do now -tlat of their backs? This article doubtless was the last agonizing effort at reverge of one of their very strongest and longest-fixed, who serviced the rest that fell some days ago. It is amoning, however, to see how many of Nuttall's opponents, good souls, begin now to see some merit in him. some redcemiag trait of character in him, since his election, and undiscovered before; some capac-ity equal if not superior to Pryor. Thisls well enough, although it o messate, for you know it is nover too late to do good; on this hange the re-deeming hope of many a sinful soul.

There are yet some other folks, fine folks, who can never see anything respectable, much less admirable, in a Democrat; have they not sworn to prescribe no? How then is it possible for such narrow-minded individuals to discover any merit in Major Nuttall, who has always been an nawavering Democrat. How could they discover in him any sense, decempy, or dignity? It is impossible, atterly so, and it will take some time yet to open their diminutive squinters to the fact of his superior ability. "They should'nt be taken away before their eyes are open; then, and not till the s, should they be removed from the kennel, my son. It is true that a few about New Castle consider Nutrall's election a dreadful entastrophe to them and company; but the masses are delighted; they have confidence in his honesty, and in his ability and feel confident of the fact that he will make for the district an excellent Judge. They know that he is equal to Pryor in every essential quali-fication to fill the office; that I'ryor has but one solitary advantage over the Major, and that Is his experience on the bench.

We assert, without fear of contradiction, that Auttall is Pryor's superior in education. That he s equally as good an elementary lawyer. That initiall commanded a better practice and was more uncessful as a practitioner at the bar.

He was a member of the oppvention that fram ed the New Constitution, consequently perfectly families with the fundamental law of the land; not only this, but he served in the legislative, off and on, since 1823 down to the last session of the gen-eral assembly, and participated in the very enstment of nearly all the statutory laws of the and f r 35 years; and last, though not least, he is perfectly well acquainted with the nature of this ople, consequently better able to decide correctly con all questions at issue arising from out of the sanderstandings of his constituency; and while re sympathize with the old fogy malcontents in and about the town of New Gastle, we can't go s far as to permit them to slander our estimable choic judge without notice.

rue, when we felt most exuitant at the se ection by the people of our distinguished fellowtizen Major Nuctail, for the office over Judge Pryor, we, out of sheer respect for their incon-clable grief, governed our jubilant feelings-even folded our flapping wings and dropped a tear of puty over the sorrows of the few broken-hearted about town whose visages looked so wan and ghast-I that the pale cast of but one sickly thought seemed to flit across their distracted brows, and that was, "we are baston!" Why, the picture of lespair in the representation of the last victim of the flood, sitting disconsolately upon the only re-maining point above the wide wild waste of waers, hemmed in by the distant horizon, and all the earth end every o her creature drowned beneath the companion of his bosom just dropped life less from his despairing arms and affoat at his feet, and he, of all earth, there slone listlessly in dumb agonysat, with no hope and no God, is nothing impare with the wo-begone looks of a f v since the defeat of their favorite for judge-those who lived alone on the light of kind emiles from the facetions second Laniel' come to judgment The most sensible gave up the contest when the tale was fairly told; whilst those of I fogies who had wantonly committed the uppardonable sin of wantonly deministed the imparatuation and standering Major Nuttall without stirt, clang to the desperato hope that he was yet defeated, to the very bitter end. They figured and ro figured—counted and re counted—multiplied, divided, subtracted, but when they added, Nuttall had she umerical strength, and in spite of them was the judge—they toltored and then fell that fall from whence there is no rising—noless they revive again under the genial is fluences of justice and nercy, dispensed impertially alike to rich and poor much beach by the upright and discriminating Nuttall, who will know no man or set of men or the judgment seat, but b indf dJrd, with the dust-ed soales poised in his firm and honest grasp, mete without lear, favor, affection or reward.

SCOTTVILLE, August 11th, 1356. Mesers. EDITORS: It is my pleasing task to conoy to you the fasts of one of the most enl. ver-in ents that has taken place in our town for many verwhelming defeat of the Know-Nothing party, all the fiat of destiny, that seemed last year ans-ended and uncertain, has fixed its destruction. It s torn, riven, selit, and scattered, and the waves Democracy rell proudly, majestically, and irresistably, where its barriers were once presentedarriers which deladed men believed were founded rends here saw their hopes of this county, and of this district, and of this State, dissipated like va-por, their pillars of strongth crumble into ashes, and their bright prospects vanish like enchantent, they sought relief by inviting speakers from abroad to assist in reviving their phantom dreams and hallucinations, and in loading them to the prospective and wistfully luxurlous scene of defeat blackness about the venerable head of James Bnchanan, so radiant with glory and effulgent with all that can render a statesman admirable, loved. enerated, and honored. Wm. Ds Wit, Erq., ot afayette, Tenn., alone responded to their invitaion by his presence. Their invitations were un known to the Democracy until too late to get in formation to their speakers. Mr. De Wit arrived Sunday evening, and sherrly after, to the delight of his friends, the Hon. James P. Bates, who was on professional business, made his appearance. He was entirely unprepared for discussion, but at 11 o'clock, Monday (County Court day), the glove was thrown to him, and he never refuses to take it ap. It was in a measure attributable to the withering force of his arguments last summer, when a candidate for Congress (which, like bread cast upon the waters of the Nile, have brought forth their fruit after a season), that Mr. Sale, our gallant y ung Domecratic candidate for Commonvealth's Attorney, was enabled to defeat his K. N.

Mr. Do Wit opened with a flourish, and for two hours and a half regaled as with sunflower rhetoric on Mr. Fillmare, and night-shade features of Mr. Buchanan. On Major Breckingidge he was dumb as a sheep led before his shearers, and Mr. Danelson he avoided as an apparition. It was one of that class of speeches which sounds very well, but, like the chimes of a tinkling cymbal, makes no asting impression, or like the wind that bloweth where it listeth and ye only hear the sound there-of, born on a breath, and with a breath expiring. His argument, if any he had, was intended in prove Mr. Buchanan unworthy the position in which the Democracy intend to place him, and to how that one party is wanting in the North, o indeed that it has descended out of the glory of its bright political sky behind, and here swallow ed up in the venomous clouds of Black Republisulsm that are rising ever that porlion of the nion. Deluded, misguided man, since his eyes have been fixed upon that wonder of the deep, th meteor of his party's night, with a gaze so fascin ated and intened, he is not able to see the dema goguery, so plain that he who runs may read, that as made his platform secondary, and a series of cistical, ambitious, and electionseering spoeches first in his political creed, since he can see no ea vior but this model president of passiveness, and hear no other voice than the æ lian cadence of his oracular lips. The benighted man seems unaware that in following atter him he is passing through sloughs of mire, filth, and pollution, unconscious of the forces throughout the Union that will erush of the forces throughout the Union that will erush the colors of a day, and senseless to the nto the very mouth of destruction. Such was his ourse to day. I cannot give a synopsis of his emarks, for they passed away with the breezes that were fanning my brow. He'll long remember, I opine, the day he crossed from his own State and met the champion of the "unterrified," "the lieneartod," the Christian's advocate, the defender justice, the universal philanthropist and no wervering patriot, the lover of State rights, and the triend of the Union. Permit me thus to consolidate the characteris-ies of our honored friend, who, though unfortunato in his race for Congress, won, wears, and deserves his laurels. The prowd of Know Noth-ing's drummed in to day hung rether attentively the sounds that rose from their party lyre, as - threw his fingers hurriedly and irreglarly over its strings, but shrank back as from the leadly atmosphere of the Upas when burning senonces began to fall from Col. Bates, and when the athusinam of his friends began to rise in tunn! ueus demonstrations. The actions of many of hem excited mingled emotions of commissers

For two hours and a half he was the bero o every heart; nay, is stil. He culled no flowers to adorn the ragged mountain of Legic that he piled, he thrown o blushing and dewy bouquots to his au-dience, hat gave them weapons to go forth, each in his circle, and strike for his principles, his remi feeling, that sent thrills and throbs inrough very bosom. Heshowed the immiculate parity of James Buchanan, the consistency and the trength of the Democratic arty, the danger of he Union, the imbecility of the Fillmore party, not the unfitness of its candidates. Herpike of M: Breckinridge as a chaste brilliant in the cor-met of our party, whose luster will emblazed the history of the times; paid a tribute to his high elquence, his satesmanship, and the qualities of his heart, a man who would honor the position in which he is to be placed.

Of Mr. Donelson he spoke as having too little ability to rise on his morit, too little energy to prosecute with success his selush schomes, yet base enough to betray his party for that end; an in-grate, whose hands would tarnish and hreathe mil-dew on the records of his country. He showed Southern men where they should be and what was their duty. He had the enthusiastic approbation of old Whigs and Democratr; his reply was triamphant, but the most animating thing was the closing scene, occupying an hour; the debate lasted six Mr. De Wit, who had been enscenced behind a stand in one corner of the house, now made his a pearance; his friends crowded in again, and i suppose during their absence had appointed a cheering committee, as they now got up some quite lively shricks, and passed off for half an hour n very good pantomine of enthusiasm and triumph. Their speaker now recognituated now touched the Facir speaker now recapitulated, now touched the foreigners, and now drove a dazger at the Catholics, and now turning to Col. Bates, asked "if the tug of war should come, each as I have indicated between the foreigners, Roman Cathelies, and Americans, on what side would you and your party be found?" When he was through the Know-Nothing fleck again disappeared; and Col. ates arese amid tremendons applance, and his whole reply, of half an hour, elioited such demon-strations as I have rarely seen; interrupting him at short intervals for two or three minutes at a

It was most glorious, proud, and triumphant, and when he alluded briefly to De Kalb, his death, and monument on the spot of his interment, and in the hearts of the nation, many an eye was dimmed with a tear ready to full in gratitude to his memory. In reply to Mr. De Wit's question, he said, "when danger shall come upon us, be it from foreign foe or internal traitors, though streams of history were flaving round and night and strudge. blood were flowing round, and night and clouds hanging over the constitution ready to borst in sulphurio horrors, the Democracy would march to its front, drive back the tide, for it has the power, and out brave the storm, for it is invincible: its namuer has never been struck or its inscriptions changed." His roply was indeed overwhelming, and when it closed, cheers and shouts rent the air until the house was cleared. My letter is now protra ted too long. I for-bear expressions of sympathy for the Knew-Nothing party, and close. MERTON.

A BLACK REPUBLICAN GRAMAN PAPER DEAD IN THIS CITY.—The German Republished in the German language, has coased its publication, and its editor, according to accounts, has left for parts unknown, to the great chagrin of his ereditors. The Republican, before it hoisted, in an evil hour, the Black Republican Know-Nothing flag, was doing very well; that an fortunate step proved the rain of all concerned with it. The patriotic the min of all concerned with it. The patriotic and intelligent Germans of this city will not en-tain a journal which is faithless to their interests and their manhood, as all Black Republicans necossarily are, they being hand-in-glove with their worst persecutors and enemies, who would reduce them to a position in society below the negeo! There are other German Black Republican prints in this city, which, if they were not liberally sabsidized by the "Kansas Aid Society" and the Marinosaland claimants would discovered away with riposaland claimants, would die out; and even with such assistance, it is doubtful whether they will survive until the election.—Oin, Enquirer.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN, ESQ - Dear Sir: Pe it me on behalf of the Democratio and Anti-Know Nothing ladies of Elizabethtown and Har-din county, to prosent you with this Magic Hunt-ing Watch and Chain, as a slight tribute of their esteem for you as a gontlemen, and their respect for your maply and truly Democratic course throughout the heated canvass for Circuit Court Clerkship that has just passed. You met your competitor on all the political Issness of the day, and the vote you received shows full well how highly your efforts were appreciated; as one year ago Know-Nothingism was 812 in the unajority, now they can only point to 64. Had it not been or this party, you would have been elected by an orwhelming majority; and since merit and talonts have been deprived of its just reward by a morbid political influence; the ladies, to show to you and the world, that there is still an element of humanity too pure to hecome the wlave of fanaticism, have chosen to com pliment you with this magnificent pre-which they hope you will receive. The supersition is beautiful and illustrative of woman's influence. If all the beauty of Kentucky were cally Democratic, and it should becken the chivalry of the State to rally under our flag, "Som" would find this a weary, dreary, lonesome abiding place. If he did not, civilization has done but little for humanity.

Standing on the threshold of manly life, and looking about me for a party with which to act, I identified my political fortunes with Democracy, because I believed it to be the party of the Union and Constitution. It was the only friend to the fundamental principles of our government. It wished to preserve the old landmarks. It opposes a war of race and religion. It was not sectional. It had no secret ritual—no cabalictic words, nor signs, nor grips, nor oaths. It stood, founded on the rock of political truth, unmoved by the storm of faneticism, true to the Constitution, and devoted to the history, tradition and venerated mem-ories of the founders of this republic, with a creed worthy of the indersement of every patriot, and a artionality in its character that was the only safe-ty of the Union. And as the hands of this watch are true to the hour, so may I be true and leval in sentiment and action to the great principles of civil and religious freedom, as embraced in the great chart of our liborties, and re-asserted in the Democratic platform.

Bloody Work in Texas. Mr. Kendall, In his jate jetter to the New Or-Since I commenced this letter the stage has come in from San Antonio, and some of the pastengers report a great state of excitement in that city when they left last evening. John S. Me-Donald, formerly District Surveyor of Bexar, had been shot by Dr. Devine in the drugsture of the latter, and one account has it that he died instant-Politics was at the bottom of the unfortunate difficulty. The story is that Dr. Dovino, who is Mayor of San Antonio, had summoued a large number of citizens to protect the rerson or pro erty of the editor of a partizan sheet published in Mexico, called the Ranchero, who had written an article which had given great offence to some of the members of the American party. McDonaid, in particular, was irritated at the course of the Mayor, deeming it an insult to the party, and pro-ceeded to his store and commenced inflicting per-sonal chastisement. While thus attacked, Dr.

The Louisville Journal has several times as serted most positively that the contest for the Presidency was between Fillmore and Frement. To test the electrity of Prentice's statement, and the confidence of the Know-Nothing party, two bets were offered through the Democrat—as fol-

$250 that Buchanan would get twice as many lectoral votes as Fillmore. $250 that Fremont would get twice as many iectorai vetes as Fillmore.

No one has responded to either proposition, or even made inquiry about them. The gentlemen who anthorized the bets are growing weary of South. They support the same ticket for State still being put off with the stereotyped answer, Another Chance for a Speculation.

One hundred dollars that Buehanan gets the electoral vote of Kentucky. One hundred dollars that no named State will east its electoral vote for Filimore.

KENTUCKY AND INDIANA

Democratic Barbecuel At Heavysville, Clarke County, Indiana, Sept. 10th, 1858. Hon. J. D. BRIGHT, OOV. A. P. WILLARD, and other eminent speakers have accepted invitations, and will address the mosting.

The Know-Nothings have full possession o! all the engine-houses of the city, for the purpose of h !ding their meetings. We have heretofore thought the oughna-houses belonged to the city. But it seems the gailings of the General Connell are determined to be right on the goose. Their eath to Sam is more binding upon them than their oath of Mire.

If the Democrats desire to hold a meeting, they have to rent a room at three hundred dollars per sunum, while these intenso Americans have de livered over every engine-house in the city to the Know-Nothings. Suppose some of the enginehoness, through the carelessness of these inebriated feliows, are burned down, who will re-build them of course no Demicrot would be taxed for that purpose! Do the Fillm reclub. pay the city rent for these houses? Have they given toe or does the city, furnish the gas to light up the still at large, rooms of these American Councils? Was it ever the custom to hold political meetings in the enthem to their capa, ituents.

rity which my Ean Lustrale Hair Restorative has acquired in Philidelphia and throughout the United States, and the great demand that I have forthearticle, have prompted some unprincipled persons to get up an article in ite-name name, and in every outward appearance perfectly similar. The lanelis a perfect fac simile of my own. The subscriber would be above noticing auch baseness, but is obliged to do so to put his constomers upon their suard, as the whole style of the article is well calculated to deceive. Be careful to look that the name of Juter Hanelbe on the label.

1 WONDERFUG. ASTONISHING!! Unrivaled dark lover, and beautiful hair is produced by the nee of that popular preparation, known as Jules Hanel's Ean Lustrale Restorative.

No one will use any other after once using this delightful article. It is prenonneed to be a prodigy in chemistry. It cleans the hair, renders it beautifully height, amooth, and glossy, and restores the hair where it has a fallen of from disease, and in these desirable effects it has never fasied to give satisfaction. 1856. THE DEMANDS OF THE TIMES are imperative. We must either keep up with hem or lag behind. A good spring and summer trade sexpected on every side, and we have provided for a Clothing Line.

The liberal patronage hitherto bestowed on our firm has spurred us on to increased exertions, and we have now the gratifying satisfaction to be able to produce a stock of every variety of Spring and Summer Gurments, Unequaled in America. The style of our work manshly is amply tested already. We have tried to surpass our selves this spring; and, feeling fully convinced of our success, we now wast for the decision of the tradius community.
